AUTUMN WEATHER BRINGS VACATION FOLK BACK HOME

Springs and Summer Beaches Shrink Under Touch of Premature Winter, Which Puts the "Shun" in Vacashun—Officer, He's Out Again.

When winter reaches backward and lays an autumnal finger on August, somebody must pay the price. City folk, who by preference or economic exigency are spending the summer in town, have for the past two weeks joined in a chorus of thanks for the refrigerator effect which reached its noblest expression yesterday with a mean temperature of 68.

By all rules of the game, 68 belongs to October. Coupled with a fine spray of rain yesterday, the temperature brought a pale and wan look to the overworked straw. With still two weeks more of the life allotted to them by the world of fashion, the platted headgear appeared sad and forlorn. Some of the braver ones brought out from the cedar chest the green lid of yesterday, with the bow in the back—groomed and broomed to represent the vintage of 1913.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when the mercury only a few weeks back roared by preference in the upper nineties, it registered 77 on the hilltop at Chimborazo. It was the same at noon hour, and it was higher during the day. In the still watches of the early morning it sank to 58—a wintry record almost unknown in a Richmond August. When the director of government observatory at Chimborazo Park hung out the thermometer for the night at 8 o'clock, the mercury stood still at 63.

All well and good from the stand-

News of Petersburg

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
5 Bollingbrook Street,
(Phone 1485),
Petersburg, Va., August 22.

Richmond sent a delegation to the funeral yesterday afternoon of the late Mayor George Cameron, Jr., consisting of Mayor Ainslie, Mr. Lecky, of the Board of Commissioners, Mr. Beck, a member of the Administrative Board, President Adams, of the Board of Aldermen, President Peters, of the Council, and Barton H. Grundy, chairman of the Finance Committee. This delegation was taken in charge by the Petersburg Councilmen.

TO ELECT A MAYOR.

Joint Meeting of Council Likely to Be Held Next Week.

A joint meeting of the two branches of the City Council will probably be called for early in the coming week to elect a Mayor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George Cameron, Jr. The city has been without an executive head since the death of Mr. Cameron on August 3, and the need that the office should be filled is felt. The Council has shown its respect for the late Mayor by taking no action on the matter until the funeral and burial rites were performed. Two names have been very prominently mentioned in connection with the mayoralty—Robert Cabaniss and Robert E. Gill, and the choice will probably be between these two. The impression is that Mr. Cabaniss will be the choice.

Opening of Tobacco Market.

Supervisor J. B. McCulloch announces that the Petersburg market will be opened for the sale of primings on the 2nd of September, at which time buyers will be ready and on the market. Reports from this section indicate a fine tobacco crop of good quality this year.

GOVERNOR CRAIG GOES IN FOR GOLF

Returns From Vacation and Is at Hard Work in Executive Offices.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., August 22.—Back in Raleigh after his vacation and hard at work daily at his desk in the executive offices, Governor Craig has taken up golf-playing in earnest as a necessary recreation, and may be seen on the links of the Raleigh County Club nearly every afternoon. The Governor is often one of a foursome, and playing with him most frequently may be seen J. W. Bailey, the new collector of internal revenue; W. S. Wilson, Assistant Secretary of State, and Theo. Webb, one of Raleigh's young business men.

A requisition came to-day to Governor Craig from Governor Cole Blaise, of South Carolina, for J. F. Gregg, who is wanted in South Carolina for unlawfully practicing medicine. The view is taken here that the offense charged is one merely in violation of South Carolina statute, and is not extraditable. However, another phase of the case is that Gregg was indicted for trial, and his bondsmen are seeking him to save themselves the loss of the forfeit. It is possible that extradition may be accomplished on this ground.

Governor Craig issued a requisition to-day on the Governor of Georgia for E. H. Gray, wanted in Anson County for embezzlement and false pretense. A pardon is granted by Governor Craig for Wilson Curran, Anson County, serving three years for manslaughter. The pardon is on recommendation of the county authorities, and on account of the collapse of the prisoner's health, mentally and physically, and in consideration being that humanity requires the pardon.

Twenty-six county institutes for public school teachers have been held this season under the direction of Professor E. E. Sams, superintendent of schools. The institutes are being held in two institutes to be held. One opens at Goldsboro Monday, August 25, and the other at Wilmington on Monday, September 1. The institutes are being held in a most successful and in attendance and in the amount and character of work accomplished. The State law requires that there shall be county institutes at least once in two years, and counties have the right to unite in one institute when deemed advisable.

MEETING OF FARMERS.

Dr. Fletcher, Professor Carrier and Mr. Hogue Speak at Appomattox.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Appomattox, Va., August 22.—A successful meeting of farmers was held here yesterday when Dr. S. W. Fletcher, Professor Layman Carrier, of Blacksburg, and Mr. Hogue, of Nottoway County, made addresses of vital interest to the farmers of this county. Dr. Fletcher spoke on the subject of "Washing and Poor Spots," Professor Carrier on crop rotation, and Mr. Hogue on hog-raising. The meeting was held under the auspices of the experiment station of this place, with E. G. Anderson in charge.

After the speaking the crowd, together with the speakers, visited in a body the plots of the experiment station, which showed splendid results, and demonstrated the theories of the various speakers. Owing to excellent seasons in this county during the summer, the wheat crop has reached the most successful in many years.

Grass culture was also discussed in a round table talk. According to Mr. Anderson at least 1,000 acres in the county is now being seeded, whereas, according to Mr. Ferguson, before the work of the experiment station started in this county, no grass was sown at all. Ten years ago it was stated that not ten acres of grass could be found in Appomattox County. It was conceded by all the farmers present that the great improvement in all agricultural lines was largely due to the work of the experiment station in the county.

Before adjournment a vote and resolution was taken by the body of farmers present endorsing the great work of the station, and requesting the director to continue the work.

J. W. Cawthorn, nominee of this county for the House of Delegates, was present, and spoke on the work of the experiment station. He pledged himself to do all in his power to continue this work, and, if possible, to enlarge it.

Yesterday the trial of Sam Patterson, colored, took place in the courthouse. He assaulted and cut Joe LeGrand of this county, with a razor at a colored church at Chestnut Grove last Sunday. He was arrested and brought to trial. Justice Brown, after hearing evidence on both sides, rendered a verdict of guilty, and sentenced Patterson to 100 and six months in jail for abusive language, and for the assault on the jury for assault on Mr. LeGrand. He was sent to jail to await the October term of court.

HIGHWAYMEN WILL BE TRIED TO-DAY

Prisoners Positively Identified
by Irving Stout as Men
Who Robbed Him.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., August 22.—The preliminary hearing of the negro highwaymen arrested last yesterday afternoon on a charge of holding up and robbing Stephen Pegans, an insurance agent, of Del Ray, Alexandria County, was postponed by the Alexandria County authorities to-day until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, when the trio will be arraigned before Police Justice R. Gordon Finney, of Alexandria County.

The prisoners, this morning positively identified by Irving Stout, a railroad telegrapher, of Fairfax County, as the men who held him up and robbed him of money and other valuables last Monday afternoon. The prisoners face a long term in the penitentiary. Commonwealth's Attorney Captain Cranford Mackey will be present at the preliminary hearing of the men to-morrow morning.

The arrest of the highwaymen is a great relief to the residents both of Alexandria and Fairfax counties, who had become very much alarmed over the numerous robberies committed by the men.

Withers—Carr.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., August 22.—Leonard P. Withers, of Stafford, and Miss Hattie Carr, of Spotsylvania County, came to this city and were united in marriage last night at the residence of Rev. Decatur Edwards, who performed the ceremony. They will reside in this city.

SOLVE THE PUZZLES CORRECTLY AND YOU WIN! GET A CATALOGUE AND IT WILL HELP YOU TO SOLVE THE PUZZLES CORRECTLY! THE CATALOGUE ASSISTS YOU IN THREE WAYS:

1st---It Contains the 77 Correct Titles

The catalogue consists of 5,000 titles of books, with the names of the respective authors arranged alphabetically. From the list 'The Times-Dispatch' selects the 77 titles in the Booklovers' Contest. It devotes only upon your ingenuity and application to the puzzles to pick out these 77. Book knowledge and brilliancy of mind are neutralized by the catalogue.

2nd---This is the Way to Solve To-Day's Picture

Suppose to-day's picture showed a man sitting on a river bank watching a boat race.

You know that the correct title represented by each contest picture is contained in the catalogue. The catalogue is the list of 5,000 book titles arranged in alphabetical order. Seventy-seven of these are guaranteed to be the seventy-seven titles represented by the seventy-seven contest pictures.

After looking at this picture carefully you have concluded that it MUST have been drawn to represent some such title as "The Boat Race," or "Watching the Race," or "The Spectator," or "Water Sports." The picture must have been made to represent some such title. You don't have to have a knowledge of book titles to know that. Book knowledge does not do you any good in this contest—not when you have a catalogue.

You open your catalogue and turn to the titles beginning with the letter "B," where you look for such a title as "Boat Race, The"; you turn to the titles beginning with the letter "W" and look for such titles as "Watch the Race," or "Water Sports." You turn to the titles beginning with the letter "S" and look for such a title as "Spectator, The."

And if you use your catalogue and your ingenuity and KEEP AT IT you MUST win out.

Take up to-day's picture as we have taken up the picture described above. Take to-day's picture to pieces, and think up what sort of titles it must have been drawn to represent. Then TEST OUT these possible titles in the catalogue. YOU can find the correct title to to-day's picture. Read the catalogue coupon to the left and get the FREE Picture Certificate and START TO-DAY and USE THE CATALOGUE.

3rd---You Get 35 Pictures Free

In the Contest Catalogue you will find seven certificates. Each certificate will be redeemed for the five pictures named thereon. Thus, when you buy a catalogue you get the first 35 pictures free. They are worth two cents each.

The catalogue assists you in solving the puzzles quickly and easily, greatly increases your chance of winning and adds to the fun. Costs but a trifle in comparison with the services it renders you. Get your catalogue—35 cents, 40 cents by mail.

BEWARE OF FAKERS

Who Offer to Sell Worthless Lists of Titles—They Cannot Help You.

HOW THEY WORK.

These fakers generally advertise that for a 2-cent stamp they will send several titles, which, in the opinion of the fakers, will prove correct titles to the pictures. Accompanying this "sample" list of titles will be a letter advising that for 50 cents, a dollar, two dollars, or more, they will supply lists of titles that will seem to fit the pictures. Don't deal with these sharpers, because if they could furnish a list of titles that would solve the pictures, they would use their own lists and win the prizes. They know no more about the titles than you do.

GET AN ANSWER BOOK (it contains 77 double pages) AND 35 PICTURES FREE

You can make ten answers to each picture, yet only need but one copy of each picture.

On the upper page you paste a picture. On the lower section you write from one to ten book titles which you have selected for the picture pasted above.

You save time, labor and expense with an Answer Book, and it helps you to win.

USE THIS ORDER FORM FOR THE ANSWER BOOK.
